What Claude AI Does

Find Your Side uses Claude AI (a Large Language Model created by Anthropic) to: - Analyze your quiz responses and profile - Generate personalized business ideas tailored to your situation - Create customized 4-week action plans with specific daily tasks and milestones - Provide strategic recommendations and next steps

AI Limitations and Risks

Claude AI, like all artificial intelligence systems, has significant limitations:

- May make mistakes - Generates information that could be inaccurate, misleading, or false
- Hallucinations - May create plausible-sounding but completely fabricated information
- Cannot verify facts - Cannot check information in real-time or verify accuracy
- Lacks real-world context - May miss critical details about your specific situation, location, industry
- Not personalized expertise - Provides generic AI-generated advice, NOT customized by human experts who know you
- Unvalidated recommendations - Recommendations are not tested, proven, or guaranteed to work in practice
- Potential bias - May reflect biases, stereotypes, or limitations in AI training data
- Outdated information - Training data has a knowledge cutoff and misses current market trends

- No accountability - AI cannot be held responsible for outcomes of its advice

We Explicitly Make NO Guarantee That:

- AI-generated business ideas are original, unique, or genuinely viable
- AI-generated ideas are legally permitted or compliant in your jurisdiction
- AI recommendations will work, are realistic, or are appropriate for your situation
- AI advice is accurate, complete, current, or properly applicable to you
- AI output is as good as or better than human expertise
- Action plan steps will lead to successful business launch
- 4-week timeline is realistic for YOUR circumstances and resources
- Daily tasks are appropriate for YOUR skill level, experience, or situation
- Suggested business models are profitable or sustainable
- Ideas won't violate laws, regulations, or ethical standards

Your Critical Responsibility with AI Output

You are SOLELY and EXCLUSIVELY responsible for: -

Independently verifying every claim and piece of information from the AI - Fact-checking all recommendations against reliable sources - Researching the actual market viability of suggested business ideas - Confirming legal compliance and all regulatory requirements in your jurisdiction - NOT relying solely on AI-generated advice for ANY business decision - Seeking professional human expertise (attorneys, CPAs, business consultants, industry experts) - Conducting your own independent analysis and due diligence - Making fully informed independent judgments about feasibility, timing, and risk - Validating all business assumptions before investing time, money, or resources - Consulting with domain experts in relevant industries - Testing and refining AI recommendations before any implementation - Assessing whether ideas are ethical and align with your values

Do NOT Make These Mistakes:

You absolutely SHOULD NOT: - Act on or implement AI recommendations without professional review - Assume AI-generated ideas are legally viable or compliant - Treat AI output as professional business consulting, legal advice, or financial advice - Skip critical legal, regulatory, financial, and market due diligence - Invest significant time or money based solely on AI suggestions - Ignore red flags, concerns, or doubts about suggested business models - Launch a business based on AI recommendations alone - Assume the 4-week timeline applies to your situation - Ignore advice from lawyers, accountants, or industry experts that contradicts the AI
